

Dear FCC: Don't limit the satellite radio operations in reporting traffic and weather. The traffic has been especially essential to me in my business and personal travel. Your limiting it doesn't make sense in a free market...if the broadcast radio and television outlets in my area provided even a semi-competent report, I would use it. As it is the best traffic is reported by XM Radio.

Michael Harkins

Venice, FL